

Central Conference of American Rabbis is proud to present Mark Podwal's collection of Passover inspired artwork, as seen in the book, Sharing the Journey: The Haggadah for the Contemporary Family.

We're excited to offer this beautiful artwork to galleries, community centers, and synagogues interested in displaying these hand signed giclee prints. The limited edition artwork is also available for purchase, with a portion of the proceeds going directly back to your organization.

These 16" x 20" prints make meaningful Passover gifts, and will look beautiful in your home or synagogue all year long.

About the Artist

Mark Podwal's drawings have appeared on the New York Times Op-Ed page since 1972 as well as in numerous books, some of which he has written as well as illustrated. His art is represented in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Fogg Art Museum and the Library of Congress. In 1996, the French government named Podwal an Officer of the Order of Arts and Letters and in 2003, Hebrew College awarded him a Doctor of Humane Letters honoris causa. In 2011, Podwal designed new embroidered textiles for Prague's seven hundred year old Altheuschul and the Metropolitan Opera's poster for Nabucco.

He has also illustrated a Passover Haggadah, published by CCAR Press, Sharing the Journey: The Haggadah for the Contemporary Family.
