

The Sacred Calling

Four Decades of Women in the Rabbinate

April 6th & 7th, 2017

Join us as we welcome home all the women that have served TBK as rabbis. Rabbis Rosalind Gold, Judy Cohen-Rosenberg, Alison Kobey and Rebecca Gutterman will join us, along with Rabbi Kelly Levy, for a learning experience centered around this award-winning book.

Thursday April 6 - Congregational Dinner & Panel Discussion

6:00 pm Buffet Dinner catered by Creative Caterers (RSVP required. $15 pp)

7:00 pm Program

The program will feature a panel discussion moderated by Rabbi Levy on how Temple B'rith Kodesh shaped their rabbimates and how the foundation of service here has led each of them to significant leadership roles around the country.

Friday April 7 - Clergy Day Program

8:30 am Registration (RSVP required. No Charge) 9:00 am Program begins

10:30 am Brunch 11:00 am Program resumes 12:00 pm Program ends

Friday morning's program will delve into different aspects of the book, from the history and sociology to the theology of the ordination of women as rabbis. There will be small group conversations in addition to teaching for the whole group. Participants will be asked to reflect on how the presence of women in leadership roles affects their communities.

Friday April 7 - Shabbat Reception & Services

5:15 pm Wine & Cheese Reception

6:00 pm Shabbat Service

Join us for a pre-Shabbat reception and service.

Rabbis Gold, Kobey and Gutterman will be offering comments on the weekly Torah portion.

Yes, I (we) would like to participate in this wonderful program!
