May God who blessed the men and women of Israel
in every generation,
bless this bride and groom.
May God guide them on life’s journey.
May their marriage be a joy
and a good example to all who know them.
May they fashion a Jewish home worthy of praise —
a secure refuge,
where they find tranquility during all their days together.
May the love of this couple inspire and bless
their family, their friends, and the community of Israel.
Together we say: Amen.
