

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה, יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ, מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם,
שֶׁהַחַיִּים וְהַמְּמַנֵּי וְהַגִּיעָנוּ לְזַמַּן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, shehecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higianu lazman hazeh.

We praise You, Eternal God, Ruler of the world. You have kept us alive, cared for us and helped us to reach this New Year. Amen.

On Rosh Hashanah, God made the world. God placed in it pandas and polar bears, pansies and pine cones, elephants, eagles, and ants. But there were no people, and the world was a lonely place. So, God made people to live in the world, to care for the plants and the animals. Since then and forever after, we humans continue God's work. God calls us to be good to each other and to make the world better.

Our God, we pray on Rosh Hashanah to continue Your work in the New Year. We are proud to be Your partners. We praise You for putting the world in our care.
