

Contents

Acknowledgments xiii

Treasures of Torah 1

THE TORAH PORTIONS OF NUMBERS

Parashat Bemidbar 7

Jewish history and the desert

Counting the Israelites

Parashat Naso 16

The suspected adulterous

The nazirite: abstention and holiness

Parashat Beha'alotecha 26

Murmuring and complaints

The protest against Moses by Miriam and Aaron

Parashat Shelach-Lecha 36

The sin of the spies

The meaning of wearing tzitzit, “fringes”

Parashat Korah 45

Korah’s rebellion: a deadly dispute

Magic and miracles in Jewish tradition

Parashat Chukat 55

The parah adumah: the ritual and its meaning

The sin and punishment of Moses and Aaron

Parashat Balak 65

Bala'am's strange book
Decoding Bala'am's poetry and blessings

Parashat Pinchas 74

Pinchas: dangerous fanatic or hero of faith?
Women's rights: what does the Torah say?

Parashat Matot-Mas'ey 84

Understanding the request of the Reubenites and Gadites
Cities of refuge: justice for unintentional homicide

THE TORAH PORTIONS OF DEUTERONOMY*Parashat Devarim* 97

Decide justly in all cases
The spies: another view

Parashat Va'etchanan 107

The meaning of the Shema
Is it possible to love God?

Parashat Ekev 117

The dangers of arrogance
Cutting away thickness about the heart

Parashat Re'eh 127

Regulations for slaughtering animals and eating meat
Israel's role as a "treasured people"

Parashat Shofetim 137

"Justice, justice shall you pursue"
Caring for the environment

Parashat Ki Tetze 146

You shall not remain indifferent
Marriage and divorce

Parashat Ki Tavo 155

The drama and meaning of reliving history
Blessings and curses

Parashat Nitzavim-Vayelech	166
The meanings of teshuvah, “repentance”
Passing on leadership
Parashat Ha’azinu	176
If God’s ways are just, what about evil?
The importance of history
Parashat Vezot ha-Berachah	187
The significance of Torah
Moses: prophet and leader
Glossary of Commentaries and Interpreters	197
Bibliography	205