

Dear friends,

We are delighted to present the 2020 CCAR Press Catalog, with new offerings from Reform Judaism Publishing (RJP) and CCAR Press.

The array of our new and upcoming books include the latest in our collection of diverse commentary offerings, The Mussar Torah Commentary: A Spiritual Path to Living a Meaningful and Ethical Life, edited by Rabbi Barry H. Block, and The Book of Jonah: A Social Justice Commentary by Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz.

We are very pleased to be publishing our newest volume of original creative liturgy by Rabbi Karyn D. Kedar, Amen: Seeking Presence with Prayer, Poetry, and Mindfulness Practice. Rabbi Denise L. Eger has edited a groundbreaking collection of LGBTQ liturgy and rituals, Mishkan Ga'avah: A Celebration of LGBTQ Jewish Life and Ritual.

Using the vision embedded in Israel's Declaration of Independence as a template, Rabbis Stanley M. Davids and John Rosove, with Rabbis Judith Schindler and Noa Sattath, have edited a unique anthology of dialogue between North American Jews and Israelis, in both Hebrew and English, in Deepening the Dialogue: Jewish-Americans and Israelis Envisioning the Jewish-Democratic State. Inscribed: Encounters with the Ten Commandments, edited by Rabbi Oren Hayon, offers an anthology of varied perspectives on each of the Ten Commandments inspired by contemporary laws, ethics, and moral guidelines.

We continue to welcome opportunities to partner with your communities to plan learning opportunities and events related to our books. Please feel free to be in touch with us about those possibilities.

CCAR Press is proud to be the source of Jewish liturgical and educational books and resources for you and your community. Thank you for your continued support, and enjoy browsing the catalog!

Amen: Seeking Presence with Prayer, Poetry, and Mindfulness Practice

Rabbi Karyn D. Kedar

Prayer is an articulation of our noblest desires, our deepest yearnings, and our darkest places. The prayers in this collection speak directly to the complexity of human life—whether you seek expression for joy, wonder, perplexity, or heartache, for personal use or for your community, you will find here a voice for your experience that will help you linger in the blessings and move forward through the pain. This collection includes prayers for personal use, prayers for use at communal gatherings, prayers and readings for moments of grief and moments of joy, a collection of daily Psalms, and focus phrases and questions for meditation. These readings for contemplative practice and communal gatherings will aid in the search for clarity, for strength beyond what we know, and for an affirmation of holiness, of goodness, of the grandeur of God.

The Book of Jonah: A Social Justice Commentary

Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz

The Book of Jonah is a unique text in the Jewish canon. Among the shortest books in the Bible, it is also one of the most intriguingly mysterious. Through the contemporary lens provided by Rabbi Yanklowitz in this commentary, the narrative becomes a manifesto for social justice and ethical living. This dynamic deconstruction of the age-old teaching brings Jonah to life for a twenty-first century audience, thereby providing a basis for exploration of traditional Jewish knowledge as applied to the modern world.

The Torah: A Women's Commentary

Edited by Rabbi Tamara Cohn Eskenazi, PhD and Rabbi Andrea L. Weiss, PhD

The groundbreaking volume The Torah: A Women's Commentary, originally published by URJ Press and Women of Reform Judaism, has been awarded the top prize in the oldest Jewish literary award program, the 2008 National Jewish Book Awards. This book is the culmination of fourteen years of work by more than 100 female theologians, historians, sociologists, scholars, anthropologists, poets, rabbis, and cantors from the United States, Canada, Israel, and South America. The result of their exhaustive research, thought, and discussion is an eminently readable volume, unique in its synthesis of traditional interpretation methods and critical approaches with more contemporary, topical methods that give new meaning to the text.

The Fragile Dialogue New Voices of Liberal Zionism

Edited by Rabbi Stanley

M. Davids and Rabbi

Lawrence A. Englander

This collection of essays,
some of which vigorously
disagree with each other, asks the question of how we approach the subject of Zionism without further widening the rifts between us. Meant to be a conversation starter, this book wrestles with and attempts to frame the very fragile dialogue surrounding Zionism and Israel in the 21st century Progressive Jewish community. There is as much listening as there is talking in this important collection as it provides a challenging yet vital basis on which to explore liberal Zionism today.

Rabbi Renee Edelman, Consulting Editor

Foreword by Rabbi Sally J. Priesand

Preface by Rabbi Jacqueline Koch Ellenson

Women have been rabbis for over forty years. No longer are women rabbis a unique phenomenon; rather, they are part of the fabric of Jewish life. In this anthology, rabbis and scholars from across the Jewish world reflect back on the historic significance of women in the rabbinate and explore issues related to both the professional and personal lives of women rabbis. This collection examines the ways in which the reality of women in the rabbinate has impacted all aspects of Jewish life, including congregational culture, liturgical development, life cycle ritual, the Jewish healing movement, spirituality, theology, and more.

Songs Ascending The Book of Psalms in a New Translation with Textual and Spiritual Commentary

By Rabbi Richard N. Levy

This beautiful, poetic translation by Rabbi Levy of the Book of Psalms, with textual commentary that will take you inside the translation process, will help you to understand the choices each psalm's author seems to have made, and the choices facing us in the 21st century as we try to make each psalm our own. The spiritual commentary asks: to what events, struggles or triumphs in our own lives might this psalm speak? How might this psalm articulate an aspect of our spiritual lives, and how might it help us celebrate a holiday or another special day? How might it accompany us when we are ill, or visiting someone who is ill? How might it provide comfort when we have lost someone dear to us?

Raising My Voice Selected Sermons and Writing

Rabbi Ellen Lippmann

In the 25 years since she founded Kolot Chayeinu/Voices Of Our Lives, the non-denominational shul in Brooklyn, NY, Rabbi Ellen Lippmann has been raising her voice to speak to her community, to New York City, and beyond, with all of her well-known compassion, knowledge, wisdom and experience. With these selected sermons, divrei Torah, letters, speeches, and blessings, Rabbi Lippmann shares her faith and doubts, her warmth and love for Kolot, and her passion for justice in many realms. RAISING MY VOICE is organized under the rubrics drawn from Pirkei Avot, of Torah (Learning), Avodah (Service/Prayer), G'milut Chasadim (Communal care), Din (Social Justice), Emet (Truth), and Shalom (peace), with an introduction by Rabbi Nancy Weiner of HUC-JIR, Rabbi Lippmann's longtime chevruta (study) partner.

Mishkan Ga'avah: A Celebration of LGBTQ Jewish Life and Ritual

Edited by Rabbi Denise L. Eger

This groundbreaking collection of LGBTQ prayers, poems, liturgy, and rituals is both a spiritual resource and a celebratory affirmation of Jewish diversity. Giving voice to the private and public sectors of queer Jewish experience, Mishkan Ga'avah is also a commemoration of the 50th anniversary of both the Stonewall Riots and the first pride march, reflecting the longtime advocacy of the Reform Movement for full LGBTQ inclusion.

Visual T'filah™

For more information about how Visual T'filah can enhance your community's prayer experience, please contact Rabbi Dan Medwin: dmedwin@ccarnet.org.

Bring your prayer experience into the 21st Century while remaining rooted in our tradition.

Enhance your worship experience with Visual T'filah and enable your community to see prayer in a new light. Visual T'filah combines liturgy and visual inspiration for richer engagement with prayers.

What are the benefits of Visual T'filah?

Visual T'filah allows worshippers to raise their eyes and voices, making it easier to come together as a community. This style of worship frees the hands of worshippers to clap, hold their loved ones, or play an instrument.

Is Visual T'filah ready-to-go when purchased?

There are many versions of Visual T'filah that can be purchased "off-the-shelf"—complete services that you can use as is or as part of a service. See these options on the opposite page.

Can Visual T'filah be customized?

The dynamic nature of Visual T'filah allows for endless variety and customization. CCAR can work with you to create the perfect experience for your community or we can provide you with the tools to create it yourself.

How else can Visual T'filah be used?

Many religious schools, day schools, camps, and Youth groups are successfully using Visual T'filah. Congregations use Visual T'filah for family services Tot Shabbat and Rock Shabbat, as well as regular services.
