Innovation Anchored in Tradition

Dear friends,

We are pleased to share the 2021/5781 CCAR Press catalog, with new and classic titles from CCAR Press and our imprint Reform Judaism Publishing (RJP).

The past year has been one of transitions at CCAR Press. Rafael Chaiken joined the Press in 2020 as our new Director, succeeding Rabbi Hara Person, now Chief Executive of the CCAR. Along with many of you, we experienced a transition to remote work and acted quickly to provide new resources to serve the community during the pandemic emergency.

At the same time, our mission to publish books and digital products with the highest standards for the Reform Movement and the greater Jewish community continues unabated. We are delighted to highlight just a few of our new titles.

We are honored to announce Mishkan HaSeder: A Passover Haggadah, edited by Rabbi Person and Jessica Greenbaum. Designed in the beloved format of Mishkan T'filah and Mishkan HaNefesh, it combines stirring poems and new insights on Passover with full-color works from acclaimed Jewish artist Tobi Kahn.

CCAR Press has long been committed to publishing new interpretations of our sacred texts. This year we present Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz's The Book of Proverbs: A Social Justice Commentary; Prophetic Voices: Renewing and Reimagining Haftarah, edited by Rabbi Barbara AB Symons; and The Social Justice Torah Commentary, edited by Rabbi Barry H. Block.

We are also publishing This Precious Life: Encountering the Divine through Poetry and Prayer, the final book in Alden Solovy's trilogy of contemporary liturgy. Written from the heart and grounded in tradition, Alden's words provide comfort in our uncertain moment.

We have recently launched the CCAR Press Speaker Series, which features online events with our authors. To stay informed of future events and book announcements, please join our email list on ccarpress.org. Our authors are happy to teach online classes for your community; email bookevents@ccarpress.org for details.

We are grateful for your continued support and hope you enjoy browsing this year's offerings!

Because My Soul Longs for You seeks to answer one of the most enduring human questions: Where can we find God in our lives? While Jewish theologians have long pondered the “God question” from ethical and philosophical perspectives, the last century has made space for a more experiential theology: God is present in our lived experiences. Radical amazement, to use Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel’s phrase, can be found in everyday life. Contributors to this volume share how they welcome God’s presence into their lives, as well as the theological language they use to think and speak about this presence. Chapters explore how we experience God through prayer, text study, poetry, food, music, service, movement, meditation, interpersonal connection, and much more.

The Book of Proverbs, attributed to King Solomon, is a profound collection of Jewish wisdom, song, and inspiration. Yet to contemporary readers, the text can appear vague, ambiguous, and contradictory. In this refreshing and relevant commentary, Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz challenges us to find modern meaning in this ancient text. Using his signature blend of social justice practice and Jewish thought from throughout history, Rabbi Yanklowitz shows how the words of Proverbs are strikingly pertinent to issues we face today. Drawing on a wide range of sources, Rabbi Yanklowitz explores such topics as income inequality, feminism, animal rights, environmentalism, and many more. The author's commentary is paired with the full text of Proverbs so readers can glean their own insights.

Prophetic Voices: Renewing and Reimagining Haftarah

Edited by Rabbi Barbara AB Symons

The traditional haftarah cycle, read on Shabbat and holidays during the Torah service, contains a wealth of prophetic wisdom, yet today it is too often forgotten or ignored. Prophetic Voices gives new life to these ancient texts. A diverse group of contributors—including rabbis, cantors, scholars, educators, activists, and poets—provide short commentaries on each haftarah, demonstrating their profound relevance to the present. Moreover, the volume boldly invites us to rethink the haftarah canon. Going beyond the Prophets, it presents alternative readings from Jewish texts biblical to contemporary. New haftarot for each Shabbat and holiday are included, plus haftarot for the Jewish American calendar, from Yom HaShoah to Pride Month to Martin Luther King Day. The readings are enhanced by scholarly essays placing the Prophets in historical context and examining the role of prophecy in Reform Judaism. Prophetic Voices summons us to listen, study, think, and teach—as well as to sing, pray, and march.

The Book of Jonah: A Social Justice Commentary

Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz

Foreword by Christine Hayes, PhD

The Book of Jonah is a unique text in the Jewish canon. Among the shortest books in the Bible, it is also one of the most mysterious and morally ambiguous. Who is this prophet running from God, hiding at the bottom of the ocean? Why does he struggle with God's mission to save and forgive Israel's enemies? In this volume, Rabbi Dr. Yanklowitz shows that the Book of Jonah delivers a message of human responsibility in a shared world. Illuminating such contemporary ethical issues as animal welfare, incarceration, climate change, weapons of mass destruction, and Jewish-Muslim relations, this social justice commentary urges us to join in repairing a broken world—a call that we, unlike Jonah, must hasten to answer.

Alden Solovy

Understanding Covenants and Communities: Jews and Latter-day Saints in Dialogue

Edited by Mark S. Diamond and Andrew C. Reed

Interfaith dialogues of understanding are valuable both for challenging individuals to articulate their beliefs and practices in a careful way and for deepening connections between people of different faiths. The Jewish and Latter-day Saint communities have at times been at odds, yet they share a number of significant historical and communal bonds. Understanding Covenants and Communities comes out of the Jewish—Latter-day Saint Academic Dialogue Project, a groundbreaking interfaith encounter between these two religious communities. The fruit of five conferences held semiannually since 2016, the volume addresses such themes as theological foundations, sacred scriptures, lived experience and worship, and culture and politics. Readers will emerge with a deeper understanding of the Jewish and Latter-day Saint traditions and how the two faith communities can engage in a meaningful dialogue.

Edited by Rabbi Rebecca Einstein Schorr
and Rabbi Alysa Mendelson Graf

Rabbi Renee Edelman, Consulting Editor

Foreword by Rabbi Sally J. Priesand

Preface by Rabbi Jacqueline Koch Ellenson

Women have been rabbis for over forty years. No longer are women rabbis a unique phenomenon; rather, they are part of the fabric of Jewish life. In this anthology, rabbis and scholars from across the Jewish world reflect back on the historic significance of women in the rabbinate and explore issues related to both the professional and personal lives of women rabbis. This collection examines the ways in which the reality of women in the rabbinate has impacted all aspects of Jewish life, including congregational culture, liturgical development, life cycle ritual, the Jewish healing movement, spirituality, theology, and more.

Songs Ascending The Book of Psalms in a New Translation with Textual and Spiritual Commentary

By Rabbi Richard N. Levy

This beautiful, poetic translation by Rabbi Levy of the Book of Psalms, with textual commentary that will take you inside the translation process, will help you to understand the choices each psalm's author seems to have made, and the choices facing us in the 21st century as we try to make each psalm our own. The spiritual commentary asks: to what events, struggles or triumphs in our own lives might this psalm speak? How might this psalm articulate an aspect of our spiritual lives, and how might it help us celebrate a holiday or another special day? How might it accompany us when we are ill, or visiting someone who is ill? How might it provide comfort when we have lost someone dear to us?

Prophetic Voices: Renewing and Reimagining Haftarah

Edited by Rabbi Barbara AB Symons

The traditional haftarah cycle, read on Shabbat and holidays during the Torah service, contains a wealth of prophetic wisdom, yet today it is too often forgotten or ignored. Prophetic Voices gives new life to these ancient texts. A diverse group of contributors—including rabbis, cantors, scholars, educators, activists, and poets—provide short commentaries on each haftarah, demonstrating their profound relevance to the present. Moreover, the volume boldly invites us to rethink the haftarah canon. Going beyond the Prophets, it presents alternative readings from Jewish texts biblical to contemporary. New haftarot for each Shabbat and holiday are included, plus haftarot for the Jewish American calendar, from Yom HaShoah to Pride Month to Martin Luther King Day. The readings are enhanced by scholarly essays placing the Prophets in historical context and examining the role of prophecy in Reform Judaism. Prophetic Voices summons us to listen, study, think, and teach—as well as to sing, pray, and march.

Understanding Covenants and Communities: Jews and Latter-day Saints in Dialogue

Edited by Mark S. Diamond and Andrew C. Reed

Interfaith dialogues of understanding are valuable both for challenging individuals to articulate their beliefs and practices in a careful way and for deepening connections between people of different faiths. The Jewish and Latter-day Saint communities have at times been at odds, yet they share a number of significant historical and communal bonds. Understanding Covenants and Communities comes out of the Jewish—Latter-day Saint Academic Dialogue Project, a groundbreaking interfaith encounter between these two religious communities. The fruit of five conferences held semiannually since 2016, the volume addresses such themes as theological foundations, sacred scriptures, lived experience and worship, and culture and politics. Readers will emerge with a deeper understanding of the Jewish and Latter-day Saint traditions and how the two faith communities can engage in a meaningful dialogue.
